ALILA DIWA GOA WINE SELECTION

We have attempted to assemble a wine cellar that encompasses a selection of some of the world's best received wine varietals and wineries. The Alila Diwa Goa selection has been compiled bearing in mind the diversity of labels and wine making styles that exist, some boutique wine makers from the old world and new world have been featured

People are their own wine critics and they actively choose and drink wine more for personal preference over label bias and wine snob dictates....

A generous sampling of its diverse flavours is represented on our list. For each varietal there are some options available from different parts of the world.

We would also like to encourage you to sample wines from our extensive selection, almost all grape varietals are featured on this list as well.

Our service team will be delighted to recommend or assist you with your selections.

We truly hope you enjoy your wine experience at the Alila Diwa Goa....

Santé!

WHITE WINES

Chardonnay

Chardonnays make consistently excellent, rich and complex white wines. Typically, these wines offer bold, ripe, rich and intense fruit flavours of fig, melon, pear, peach, pineapple, lemon and grapefruit along with spice, honey, butter, butterscotch and hazelnut flavours. This is a very versatile grape and grows well in a variety of locations throughout the world, particularly in Burgundy, Australia and California.

Riesling

The Riesling vine's hardy wood makes it extremely resistant to frost, therefore this variety excels in cooler climates. Although best known for the wines of Germany's Mosel-Saar Ruwer, Pfalz, Rheinhessen and Rheingau, it also achieves brilliance in Alsace and Austria. Due to their higher acidity and distinctive floral, citrus, peach and mineral accents the Rieslings of Alsace have won many fans around the world.

RED WINES

Cabernet Sauvignon

This grape is a remarkably steady and consistent performer all over the world. In Bordeaux it is blended with Cabernet Franc, Merlot, and Petit Verdot to create some of the world's most famous great wines. In California, it produces wines of uncommon depth, richness and longevity. For our Cabernet Sauvignon collection we have selected a few outstanding styles of this great red grape.

Zinfandel

The most widely planted grape in California, it may have originally come from Southern Italy as a variant of the Primitivo grape. Although much of it is vinified into a blush wine, real Zinfandel, the red wine is quintessential California wine. The grape has a zesty, spicy pepper, raspberry, cherry wild berry and plum flavours.

Shiraz

Also known as Syrah in France, the Shiraz is a majestic red that can age for half a century. The grape itself seems to grow well in a number of areas and is capable of rendering rich, complex and distinctive wines, with pronounced pepper, spice, black cherry, tar, leather and roasted nut flavours, a smooth supple texture and smooth tannins.

Pinot Noir

Pinot Noir, the great grape of Burgundy offers the classic black cherry, spice, raspberry and currant flavours and an aroma that can resemble wilted roses, along with earth, tar, herb and cola notes. A fickle grape to grow as it reacts to environmental changes is therefore different in different parts of the world. Anderson Valley in California and Oregon produce interesting flavour variants to the classic Burgundy Pinot Noir.
