Something To Consider...

INCLEMENT WEATHER PLAN

Weather in Bali is generally dry from April to October and wet from November to March. The wet season back-up plan is compulsory. The options available depend on the size of your group.

RAIN STOPPER SERVICES

To ensure festivals and special events are not dampened by rain, the Balinese often perform a ritual to divert rain to other locations or simply hold it back for several hours. Performed by a Balinese Hindu priest, it involves making small offerings and burning incense as well as a plate of fire (pengesepan), whose rising smoke is believed to push the clouds away. This ritual is available at IDR 2,000,000++/day (12 hours). Alila Seminyak cannot be held responsible for adverse weather conditions or failure of the services provided by a Balinese rain stopper should you wish to use one.

BANJAR – LOCAL COMMUNITY FEE

For any event that caters for more than 20 people and/or requires a significant setup such as a stage, live music, DJ, performances, etc., a fee of IDR 2,000,000++ will be charged and contributed directly to the local village community.
