Kite flying is an enjoyable activity for all ages, and it's a popular pastime in Bali. Bali's seasonal offshore breezes make it an ideal location for kite flying, and the sky is often dotted with kites of all shapes and sizes on windy days. You can even try your hand at making your own bamboo-framed, hand-painted kite, which will fly beautifully in the island's breezes. And even if kite flying isn't your thing, Bali kites make for great wall hangings that can add a touch of colorful island charm to your home.

Whether you're looking for a fun activity or a unique souvenir to take home, kite flying in Bali is a great option. With its perfect kite-flying conditions and beautiful, handcrafted kites, you're sure to have a memorable experience that will add a touch of Balinese charm to your vacation.
