SINGLE-ORIGIN COFFEE

LINTONG NIHUTA COFFEE

38

Lintong Wet-Hulled Triple-Pick Arabica Coffee comes from a rare region and is made from old Onan Ganjang and Rasuna coffee plants, similar to Typica. It has a unique taste with lively acidity and a medium to heavy body, combined with a smooth flavor that includes hints of butterscotch and clove. This coffee is grown in Lintong Nihuta at heights of 1200 to 1600 meters.

Origin : Tapan Nuli

Tasting note : Velvety body with a hint of butterscotch and clove

SUMATRA KARO JASMINE COFFEE

50

Sumatra Karo Jasmine coffee beans are grown in the Karo highlands of North Sumatra, Indonesia. They have a unique flavor with notes of jasmine, brown sugar, and chocolate. These beans are processed using the wet-hulling method, which enhances their sweetness and complexity. The jasmine infusion during drying adds a floral aroma and flavor, making this coffee truly special.

Origin : Karo, Sumatra

Tasting note : Jasmine, coffee blossom, floral

LAS FLORES CHIROSO COFFEE

50

Las Flores Chiroso coffee, an Arabica variety from Colombia, is known for its unique flavor achieved through natural fermentation. The term "Chiroso" might refer to the shape of the coffee fruit or the processing method. Natural fermentation allows microorganisms to break down the sugars in the coffee fruit, creating fruity, sweet, and complex flavors in the final brew.

Origin : Huila

Tasting note : Ripe guava, grape, raspberry, bubblegum
